APPEAL IN BEHALF OF CUBANS.

Mr. Call's Effort Not Listened to by Many People-Great Rush for Appointive Offices-Old Dominion

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 6 .-(Special,)-Both the Virginia and the North Carolina senators were in their sems when the proceedings opened this morning, Senator Daniel had as visitors on the floor Congressmen Swanson and Otey, both of whom heard Senator Cal., of Fiorida, make a lengthy and eloquent appeal in behalf of the down-trodden people of the ever-faithful isle, and asking for the recognition of that country by the United States.

Mr. Daniel was busy overlooking his correspondence, and Mr. Martin pleasantly conversing with a brother senator a portion of the time during the delivery of Mr. Call's speech, and probably not more than half a dozen senators paid any attention to h. The thinly-filled galleries, however, listened attentively to the Senator from the land of flowers, beause they had nobody else to listen to, and, perhaps, a majority of them sym-pathized with him in his efforts to have Cuba recognized. Cuba recognized.

SCRAMBLE FOR PLACE. SCRAMBLE FOR FLACE.

Although there are only 246 offices to be filled by appointment of the newly-elected officials of the House, there are four times that number of applicants for the positions. The town is full of those office-seekers, and for some of the places there are more than helf a down applicants. seekers, and for some of the places there are more than haif a dozen applicants. If every Republican congressman were to get one place each for a constituer, there would be barely enough to go 'round; but as many will nave to get three or four a large number will be left out in the cold. On this account, it is said that General Walket, of Virginia, will opin be accorded one very small. said that General Walket, of Virginia, will only be accorded one very small office, and this will probably fall to Mr. W. H. Fairless, of Portsmouth, who came here and opened a vigorous canasas for the postmastership of the House, but was defeated by the New York and Pennsylvania combination. Several who came here aspiring to the big positions, and who "opened headquart rs" and spent a pile of money, will now either be obliged to accept a small-salaried place, or return home to begin life over again. Numbers who wanted good-salaried clerkships will take a laborer's place, or no Numbers who wanted good and the ships will take a laborer's place, or nothing at all, and the crowd that can't get anything whatever would make good regiment.

The Democrats are happy this time in the control of the state of t having no patronage to bestow, but the lot of the Republican member now is not LAWYERS IN EMBRYO.

DEMOCRATIC SENATE CAUCUS. It Agrees to Let the Republicans Take Charge of Things.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 5 .-The Democratic Senate caucus authorized the charman to appoint a commit-tee of nine to assign the Democratic members to the committee memberships. The drift of the discussion, and especialiy the remarks of S nators Vest and Blackburn indicated a willingness to per-mit the Republicans to assume the re-sponsibility of the committees and sponsibility of the committees, and through that channel, of the legislation of the present Congress. RAILROAD BUILDING.

A Revival in This Direction at the South.

BALTIMORE, MD., December 5.-Special reports to the Manufacturers' Record show that there is a decided tend ney towards a revival in railroad improvement and construction in the South, quite a number of enterprises of this kine bling reported as in prospect for early construction. The building of a number of short roads in mineral and timber districts is opening up some extensive pro-perties which western capitalists and others are preparing to develop. Cotton-mill enterprises continue to attract attention, and a number have been reported during the past we k, including a $100,000 cotton-mill projected in South Carolina, the incorporation of a cottonmill company, with a capital-stock not to exceed $560,000, a proposition to in-crease the stock of a n. w company from $160,000 to $250,000, a $10,000 hosiery-mill, a 815,000 knitting-mill, and a smaller knit-ting-mill and a thread-mill.

A Virginia tannery company has con-tracted to establish a $100,000 tannery at North Wilkesboro', N. C. In the same

State an electric-light plant, a box-fac-tory, a furniture-factory, and a $10,000 flour-mill have been reported. Alabams reports a $20,000 smelting-plant, a tannery, and the enlargement of bask t-works; Arkansas, an ice- and of bask t-works; Arkansas, an ice- and electric-light plant; Florida, a starch-factory, a cedur-mill, a sash- ard door-mill, and a lumber-mill; Georgia, a pytites mining company; Louisiana, a $150,000 electric-light plant, water- and electric-light works, and a paper-mill; Mississippi, water- and electrical-supply company; Texas, a $25,000 electric-light plant, and a $500,000 irrigation company; Virginia, a $15,000 browery and planing-mill.

It is noted that there is increasing activity in the establishment of such mu-nicipal improvements as electric-light and water-works, indicating that such estabare making rapid progress throughout the South

VERDICT FOR $49,000. Suit Due to Failure of Key West

Bank. TALLAHASSEE, FLA., December 5. After four days' trial before Judge Malone, in the Circuit Court here, the case of Allen, of Key West, vs. George Lewis, of Ahen, of Key West, vs. George Lewis, banker, of this place, was concluded to-day, the jury giving Allen a verdict for $26,000, with interest from May, 1831, the whole verdict aggregating about $13,000. The evidence before the jury was to the effect that Lewis, when president of the bank of Key West induced Alles to bank of Key West, induced Allen to purchase 335,000 of the stock of the bank at $1.20 per share. Allen agreed to buy on condition that Lewis retain the prese-dency of the bank, and that he protect dency of the bank, and that he protect the credit of the bank with the New York correspondent. On these terms Allen made the purchase. He berrowed the money, depositing the stock as collateral. Lewis soon after returned to his home, in Tallahassee, resigned the presidency of the bank, transferred his other holdings to his wife and children, and informed Allen that he could no longer sustain the credit of the bank with the New York correspondent.

NEW YORK, December 5.—Reports re-ceived here to-day from out-of-town dis-tributing points still reflect generally quiet conditions in the dry-goods market, is both retail and jobbing trades; but indi cate some improvement over the averag experience for November, and give pros-pects of a material increase in business this month. The effect of this will probaby be felt later on the primary market.

The feature of the spring business doing just n w is the demand for noveltler in fine printed and woven pattern goods.

There has been no change in the tone of the market for either cotton or wooller goods.
